

---

Mr. Terry Halvorsen

Deputy Commander Navy Cyber Forces

Mr. Halvorsen officially became the Commander for Navy Cyber Forces on 26 January 2010. This is part of the Navy Cyber reorganization. In his new role Mr Halvorsen retains the this Fleet forces Command titles as Dep ACOS N6 and CIO. Previous to this Mr Halvorsen served as the Deputy Commander, Naval Network Warfare Command (NETWARCOM). He is responsible for providing leadership for over 16,000 military and civilian personnel located throughout the world, supporting over 300 ships, and approximately 800,000 computer network users, all globally dispersed. In this position he is responsible for the business performance of Navy network operations, space operations, information operations and knowledge management. He drives the current readiness metrics and analysis for the Naval NETWAR/FORCEnet Enterprise (NNFE). He is directly involved in establishing governance structure, processes and mechanisms to optimize over $8 billion in Navy resources.

Mr. Halvorsen entered the Senior Executive Service in July 2004 as the Executive Director Naval Personnel Development Command, responsible for overseeing all individual training in the Navy, serving as the Navy representative for all inter-service training, and establishing the Navy's new individual training structure based on centers of excellence. Mr. Halvorsen was personally selected for the Chief of Naval Operations-directed Executive Review of Navy Training (ERNT). This was a comprehensive review of all aspects of Navy training resulting in the Navy's Revolution in Training to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of Navy training. At the conclusion of the ERNT project Mr. Halvorsen was selected as the Director of Task Force Excel Atlantic, charged with accelerating the revolution in Navy training. He also served as the Manpower, Personnel, Training and Education (MPT&E) CIO. In February, 2006 Mr. Halvorsen was designated Acting Executive Director, Naval Education and Training Command (NETC)/MPT&E Echelon II.

Mr. Halvorsen entered Federal Civil Service in 1985 as the Curriculum Instructional Standards Officer for Navy Cryptology Training, Corry Station Pensacola, FL. He has held numerous positions in the training community to include Deputy for C41 Training, Director Training Policy and Standards, and Director of Assessment where he was one of the principal architects of the Navy's Training reengineering efforts.

He graduated with honors from Widener University with a degree in History. Mr. Halvorsen was commissioned a Regular Army 2LT in May, 1980. He was a distinguished military graduate and a George C. Marshall award winner. Following graduation and commissioning, he attended Army Officer Basic Course and the Intelligence Officer Course. His first assignment was Executive/Operations Officer, Army Intelligence Detachment Pensacola, supporting the Army's training with the Navy.

He simultaneously obtained a Master's Degree in Educational Technology from the University of West Florida. Mr. Halvorsen's active and reserve tours include Commander, Intelligence Security Detachment Combat Support Coordination Team 1, Republic of Korea Operations Officer Directorate of Security Fort Banning, Commander HHC 361st Civil Affairs Brigade (CAB), Intelligence Officer 361st CAB and Executive Assistant Commanding General 350th CA Command. Mr. Halvorsen was recalled to active duty numerous times in support of Operation Just Cause, Desert Storm and Joint Task Forces in Central and South America.

Mr. Halvorsen's personal awards include the, Superior Civilian Service, Meritorious Civilian Service, Legion of Merit, Joint Meritorious Service Medal , and Meritorious Service Medal. He is a Rotary International Paul Harris Fellow, and an Excellence in Government Leadership Fellow.